

“Jump, Jive and Read” Fact Sheet

Who: Area preschoolers, kindergartners, 1st graders, siblings and parents as well as music teachers

What: Jump, Jive and Read, an interactive 90 minute event features live music, dance, silliness and fun

Jump – There will be movement with music, running, jumping, and gross-motor stuff

Jive – Then for about 15 minutes, kids along with their families will make sounds, rhythms with voices, hands, feet, bodies, etc.

Read – 15 minutes of interacting physically with some books/songs, itsy bitsy spider, some jazz books for kids

When: Saturday, March, 10th from 10 to 11:30 am

Where: Ramada Convention Center, Lower Hall, Downtown Eau Claire

Cost: FREE

Why: To create an opportunity for children and their parents to have a fun and engaging morning where they can appreciate and learn more how to make music without an instrument. Additionally the event will highlight how one can use jazz music and dance to have fun!

For more information about this FREE, fun and family-friendly event and for the latest schedule of events and venues for Eau Claire jazz Festival go to www.eauclairjazz.com or call 715-836-4092.

Eau Claire Jazz, Inc. is working with the following partners to bring our community this family friendly FREE event: Eau Claire Area School District, EC4T (4 year old Kindergarten program), Headstart, L.E. Phillips Public Library, Eau Claire Children’s Museum and the YMCA.

Eau Claire
Jazz Inc

