The USDA requires that all Child Nutrition {CN} approved products must carry the label on the package. We recommend that you make copies of all CN labels from the foods that your school purchases if the DPI requests the information, you already have it on file.

The information enclosed in this publication is as much CN information and nutritional data that was available at the time of printing. If there is incomplete nutritional data (ie Trans fats) it is because this is all the current information on file from the manufacturer. We have made every effort with accuracy in compiling this information, however, Indianhead Foodservice Distributing accepts no liability or responsibility for the misuse of this information. The information contained within is subject to change by the manufacturers. This information may change prior to the next printing.
