FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cranfest Quilt Contest Rules Available

WARRENS, WISCONSIN, March 26, 2010— Warrens Cranberry Festival announces that rules for its quilt and needlework contest are now available.

The contest is open to everyone, and categories include bed quilts, crib quilts, youth entries and needlework. All work must be new this year to be considered for prizes. Previous Warrens Cranberry Festival quilt and needlework contest entries will be accepted for display only and will not be judged.

Ribbons for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place will be awarded in each division. A best of class ribbon and gift will be awarded for each class. A best overall workmanship ribbon and gift and a judge's choice ribbon and gift will also be awarded.

Anyone wishing to participate may obtain complete rules and entry forms online at www.cranfest.com or call the festival office at 608-378-4200. The contest entry deadline is Sept. 1, 2010. Dates for the 38th annual Warrens Cranberry Festival are Sept. 24-26, 2010.

The purpose of the Warrens Cranberry Festival shall be to promote the common good and general welfare of the community of Warrens, including holding an annual community festival and raising funds to be used exclusively for civic betterments and social improvements in the Warrens community.
