Warrens Cranberry Festival Recipe Winners Announced

Cranberry Blossoms and Cranberry Fruit Pizza are Winning Recipes

WARRENS, Wisconsin, October 6, 2009—Warrens Cranberry Festival announced the 2009 Wisconsin Cranberry Recipe Contest winners at the 37th annual festival on Sept. 25.

The winning recipe in the fresh cranberry division was Cranberry Blossoms by Jean Harvey of Bruce. Cranberry Fruit Pizza by Denise Grover of Onalaska was the winner in the processed cranberry division.

Second place in the fresh cranberry division was Cranberry Cheese Tart by Shirley Johnson of Warrens, and Anita's Cranberry Scones by Anita Reeck of Wilton took third.

In the processed cranberry division, Sheena Voge of Merrillan won second place for her version of Cranberry Blossoms. Rachel Reeck of Sparta won third place with her Sweet BBQ Chicken Dip.

Winners were selected from 15 recipes that were judged based on visual presentation, uniqueness, ease of preparation, taste and overall quality.

For more information about the annual recipe contest, contact the festival office at 608-378-4200 or visit www.cranfest.com.

The purpose of the Warrens Cranberry Festival shall be to promote the common good and general welfare of the community of Warrens, including holding an annual community festival and raising funds to be used exclusively for civic betterments and social improvements in the Warrens community.
