

Warrens Cranberry Festival, Inc.

P.O. Box 146
WARRENS, WI 54666
CRANFEST@CRANFEST.COM

PHONE: 608-378-4200
FAX: 608-378-4250
WWW.CRANFEST.COM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

This contest is open to the public and anyone is welcome to enter any vegetable or sunflower grown.

Check-in: Items must be brought between 4:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 22nd, to the Vegetable and Sunflower Contest site in the entertainment tent, inside the Ball Park. Chairperson of the Vegetable Contest is Joe Pearson.

Judging: Vegetables, sunflowers and New This Year! Biggest Pumpkin Contests will all be judged after 6:30 p.m., Thursday, September 23rd. Vegetables and sunflowers must be displayed until 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 25th. BEST QUALITY WINS. Please bring all vegetables thoroughly cleaned.

Judges Choice ribbons will be given for the overall contest winners. Name is added to the plaque for the family or individual who has entered the vegetable contest the most in years past. Special award is given for the most unusual vegetable. Best of Class ribbons are given for vegetable and sunflower winners. Ribbons for 1st and 2nd place are given.

NEW Contest for Cranberry Festival Visitors—Guess the weight of the pumpkin. Contest site in the entertainment tent, inside the Ball Park. Winner will be announced during the parade on Sunday, September 26, 2010.

Please contact the festival office with any questions at 608-378-4200 or office@cranfest.com.

You can write the office at
Warrens Cranberry Festival
P.O. Box 146
Warrens, WI 54666.

The purpose of the Warrens Cranberry Festival shall be to promote the common good and general welfare of the community of Warrens, including holding an annual community festival and raising funds to be used exclusively for civic betterments and social improvements in the Warrens community.

###