Cranfest Names Warrens Lions 2010 Parade Marshals

Lions to celebrate 25th anniversary this year

WARRENS, Wisconsin, February 8, 2010—Warrens Cranberry Festival has named the Warrens Lions as its 2010 parade marshals.

The Lions are celebrating their 25th anniversary in 2010. The club was founded in 1985 by Gary Alexander, who also served as the first president. Since their inception, the Lions have made several contributions to the Warrens community, including the concession stand and pavilion at the ball park and the Lions Log Building, which is used for everything from community gatherings to receptions and family reunions.

The Cranberry Festival parade will take place on Sunday, Sept. 26, 2010 at noon. For more information, visit www.cranfest.com, or call the festival office at 608-378-4200.
