2010 Warrens Cranfest Button Design Chosen

WARRENS, WISCONSIN, January 26, 2010— Warrens Cranberry Festival has chosen a design for the 38th annual festival. The button features white lettering circling the button on a green background, with cranberries and vines surrounding “2010.”

The 2010 buttons are $1 each and can be purchased at F&M Bank, Warrens Mall, Quilting Plus and the Cranberry Festival office in Warrens. Buttons are available in Tomah at the Chamber of Commerce, Phillips Pharmacy, J&R Variety, Cranberry Country Mall and the Antique Mall.

Area youth groups are encouraged to sell the buttons as a fundraiser. Call the Cranberry Festival office at 608-378-4200 for details.

The 2011 button design contest rules are currently available. The deadline for entries is June 1, and the winning button will be unveiled at the 2010 Cranfest, to be held Sept. 24-26. Rules are available online at www.cranfest.com, or call 608-378-4200.

The purpose of the Warrens Cranberry Festival shall be to promote the common good and general welfare of the community of Warrens, including holding an annual community festival and raising funds to be used exclusively for civic betterments and social improvements in the Warrens community.
