

Raising calves organically increases value. Certified organic feed can help raise wholesome, nutritious and flavorful food products while helping sustain the environment and fostering responsible energy usage and animal husbandry practices.

Years of expertise goes into each bag of Natures Grown Organics, providing confidence of purity and quality.

calves

A complete ration for growing calves
- either for dairy or beef.

This combination of organic corn, oats, plant proteins and molasses stimulates excellent feed intake to support healthy growth rates. Provide fresh, clean water at all times and offer hay only after 12 weeks of age.

Feed one to four pounds per head per day.

Features

Made with 100% certified organic ingredients, including corn, oats, organic plant proteins and molasses

Contains proper balance of energy, amino acids, vitamins and minerals

Complete feed form

Benefits

Wholesome source of nutrition in a single, complete feed

Stimulates early consumption, great intake and increased growth rates

No mixing required

Flexible ration, suitable for both calves raised for organic beef production or those raised for dairy production

The best of the land™
www.naturesgrownorganics.com

Manufactured with care by
Heartland Country Cooperative
405 S. Main Street | Westby, WI 54667