

Raising goats organically increases value. Certified organic feed can help raise wholesome, nutritious and flavorful food products while helping sustain the environment and fostering responsible energy usage and animal husbandry practices.

Years of expertise goes into each bag of Natures Grown Organics, providing confidence of purity and quality.

goats

A complete ration for growing goats for meat production or dairy production.

This combination of organic corn, pellets and molasses stimulates excellent feed intake. Feed along with free choice pasture and hay, and provide fresh, clean water at all times.

Feed two to four pounds per head per day.

Features

Made with 100% certified organic ingredients

Contains proper balance of energy, amino acids, vitamins and minerals

Complete feed form

Benefits

Wholesome source of nutrition in a single, complete feed

Improved growth, feed consumption and reduced waste

No mixing required

Flexible ration, suitable for goats raised for meat or dairy production

The best of the land™

www.naturesgrownorganics.com

Manufactured with care by Heartland Country Cooperative
405 S. Main Street | Westby, WI 54667