

Library Board

Chapter 2.40: The library board is established for the express purpose of carrying out the duties imposed upon the municipal library board by Wisconsin Statutes. Wisconsin Statutes Section 43.58 (1989-90 edition, and as it might be amended, revised, repealed or renumbered from time to time) is adopted by reference. Therefore, the powers and duties regarding control and expenditure of moneys; auditing and approval of vouchers; consideration of claims or demands; supervision of administration of the public library; employment of lecturers; making of annual reports; receiving, managing and disposing of gifts and donations; and all other powers and duties described in said statutes, shall be conferred upon the Altoona Library Board. (Ord. 6B-91 (part), 1991)
