

Personnel Committee

Chapter 2.38.010 Purpose and duties of personnel committee.

The general purpose of the personnel committee shall be to assist the mayor and city council in carrying out their duties in areas pertaining to city personnel. Specific duties of the committee shall include the following:

A. It shall review city policies pertaining to personnel, and it shall give its recommendations regarding personnel policies to the city council and mayor;

B. It shall review present and future personnel needs of the city, and it shall make recommendations regarding personnel planning and appropriate personnel levels to the city council and mayor;

C. It shall review wage and salary ranges of city employees not represented by unions, and it shall make its recommendations to the mayor and city council regarding said wage and salary ranges;

D. It shall oversee a collective bargaining subcommittee, which shall conduct all labor negotiations with city employee labor unions. Said subcommittee shall consist of the mayor, the city administrator and a member of the personnel committee appointed by the committee. The subcommittee shall report to the personnel committee, and the personnel committee shall make its recommendations regarding collective bargaining agreements and findings to the city council and mayor;

E. It shall act as a reviewing body regarding employee grievances, pursuant to procedures set forth in the city personnel policy. (Ord. 6A-91 (part), 1991)
